The Young Lady Across the Way

We asked the young lady across the way if she admired a good character actor, and she said she certainly did, and, for her part, she felt sure there were many perfectly moral people on the stage.

HER NARROW VIEW

—Sydney Bulletin.
"What did she leave her husband for?"
"He was too broad-minded."
"Too broad-minded?"
"Yes—about other men's wives."

PETEE—Petey Certainly Is Accommodating

By C. A. VOIGHT

"MATE!"

—The Bratander.

ACCORDING TO AN EARLIER BILL

—Sydney Bulletin.
"He would himself have been a soldier, but for those vile guns!"
Henry IV.

SOME FEAT!

—The Passing Show.
Embarrassed Visitor—(Called upon to admire the latest photographic effort from overseas)—Yes, dear, a very nice snapshot of him. But my goodness, it must have given you something to do to knit socks for him.
